Steering Committee:
We recently received word from AWWA that they are arranging a phone call soon between the legal counsels (AWWA and McGraw-Hill) to discuss remaining issues in the draft contract. That's all the news they can offer us right now, unfortunately. Due to the continuing contract delays, I am cancelling our scheduled May 9 Steering Committee conference call. However, if the legal counsels come to agreement soon, we may try to schedule a teleconference prior to ACE18, which is the week of June 11. We can then take advantage of ACE to meet with authors, confirm reviewers, recruit any co-authors we might still need, etc.

Meanwhile, if your authors/coauthors ask about schedule, please tell then we are hoping to start up after ACE18.

Thank you for your patience and stay tuned!

Doug
